Dedication

Mrs. Jane Clark came to Harbor High School seven years ago, bringing with her an enthusiasm for young people's activities and an efficiency in managing their affairs.

She brought with her much experience gained in teaching and in Girl Scout work. She brought, too, a lively interest in people and in living, which she injected into her girls' health and physical education classes.

The Cadet Club, the GAA, and the interclass tournaments were her pet school projects.

In the community she is very active. The Zonta Club recognized her as its Woman of the Year for her contributions.

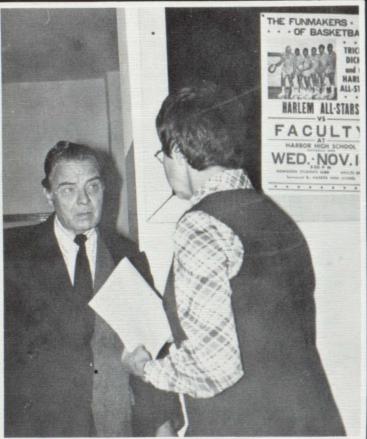

She finds time to travel, to read, to play golf, to listen to music, to enjoy her dog, to visit relatives and friends, and to do a thousand kind and thoughtful things for the sick and lonely.

The 1974 Mariner staff dedicates this book to Mrs. Jane Clark, in appreciation of her work at Harbor. We are sure that her retirement from teaching will not mean retirement from life but all the more time and energy for other activities and other people.

Purtilo, Licate Acquire New Posts

This year's administrators moved up from other jobs at HHS. Robert Purtilo, principal, was assistant principal 6 years. Before that he was assistant principal and music supervisor at Pymatuning Valley 3 years and music supervisor at Rowe and Andover a total of 10 years. He directs a church choir and has taught at Kent. He likes to bowl, garden, and do things with his children. William Licate, assistant principal, was guidance counselor 2 years here, a history teacher here 4 years and 1 year at Jefferson. He likes reading, railroading, refinishing antique furniture, and taking graduate courses.

William Licate, Ass't Principal

Our Helping Hands

Two guidance counselors and four secretaries help keep things going. Anthony Chiacchiero, new guidance counselor, taught and coached 21 years at AHS and 2 at Conneaut. His hobbies are sports and carpentry. Steve Candela, 5 years here as guidance counselor, taught science and coached sports 6 years at HHS and West. He likes hunting, fishing, railroading, and politicking. Mrs. Edna Beckman, secretary to the principal 17 years, is active in community groups. She likes music, reading, sports, and travel. Mrs. Eleanor Andrews, 5 years as guidance secretary, enjoys reading and sports, mostly basketball. Most of her spare time is taken up by her family. Mrs. Dolores Forinash, secretary to the assistant principal 6 years, likes to golf, bowl, and travel. Mrs. Tellervo Sebell, clerk-bookkeeper 8 years, plays the violin, enjoys music, reads, and travels.

English Teachers Remain Active

Harbor English teachers vary from 1 to 21 years of experience and mostly like to read, garden, and travel. Mary Boyce, 21 years, seniors and journalism, is typical, as is Esther Edeburn, 11 years, sophomores, juniors, and creative writing. She camps and square dances, too. First year Frances Flood, juniors and seniors, likes to swim. Encie Moroski, 2 years, freshmen and speech, keeps house, paints, and sews. Sports and trains occupy Dick Pavolino, 2 years, freshmen and speech. Coye Wilfong, 3 years, sophomores and seniors, manages a campground. First-year Gail Workman, sophomores, rides a motorcycle, shoots real guns, and likes antique cars.

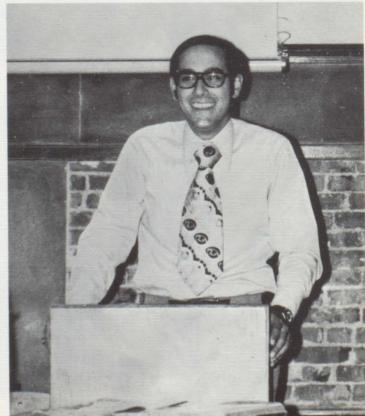

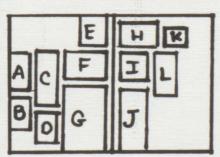

A. Esther Edeburn, B. Coye Wilfong, C. Gail Workman, D. Frances Flood, E. Enice Moroski, F. Mary Boyce, G. Richard Pavolino, H. William Wasulko, I. Clayton Cosimi, J. Barbara Kunes, K. Dean McQuaide, L. John Higgins.

Math Department

Most math teachers have been at Harbor a short time. Clay Cosimi, in his first year, teaches algebra and geometry. He plays golf, bowls, and coaches senior league baseball. John Higgins, 3 years, teaches algebra and General Math and coaches track and freshman basketball. He enjoys sports, especially basketball and golf, and travel and photography. Dean McQuaide, 2 years, teaches General Math and Business Math and coaches cross country. Painting and running are his pastimes. He hopes to run in the Boston Marathon in 1974. Barbara Kunes, 4 years, teaches algebra and geometry. She enjoys spectator sports, reading, painting, crocheting, and doing puzzles. William Wasulko, 16 years, teaches Advanced Math and is athletic director. He enjoys sports, woodwork, and travel.

Social Studies Classes Participate In Unusual Activities

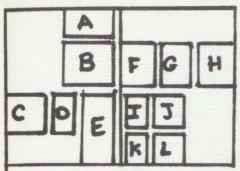

Social studies teachers have 2 to 21 years of experience at Harbor and teach a wide range of subjects. Raymond Edeburn, 11 years, teaches sociology, Consumer Education, psychology, and General Economics. His psychology classes work with types of mazes. Camping and gardening are his favorite pastimes, and he is an active member of church, social, and educational groups. Robert Huff, 21 years, teaches Problems of Democracy classes and coaches tennis and Academic Challenge teams. Role-playing is a class project. He likes to travel, read, bowl, and play tennis. He was a 1970 Jennings Scholar. Michael Lombard, 2 years at Harbor, teaches American History and World History. He admits to no pastime activities. Frank Roskovics, 3 years, teaches World History, geography, and Current History. His classes study stock market investments as a project. He enjoys watching sports and quiz games, and he likes to bowl. He manages the Little League Pirates. Glenn Sutherin, 4 years, teaches American History and is head football coach. He likes to watch athletic contests, travel, read, watch TV, and collect 1940-1950 records.

A. Frank Roskovics, B. Glenn Sutherin, C. Mike Lombard, D. Robert Huff, E. Raymond Edeburn, F. Ray Seals, G. Ann Monaco, H. Carolyn Stevenson, I. Peggy DiMacchia, J. Helen Dickey, K. Oliver Kaura, L. Karl Meinhardt.

Classes Indulge In Cultural Courses

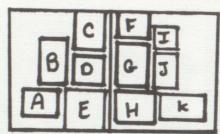

Foreign language, music, and dramatics teachers are mostly experienced. First-year Margaret Dimacchia enlivens her French classes with reports and projects. Out of school she reads, dances, and listens to music. Ann Monaco, 7 years, teaches Spanish. She bowls, knits, reads, and travels, too. Ray Seals, 9 years, teaches Latin and a general business course. Gardening, bowling, swimming, and camping are his hobbies. Last year he and his family vacationed in Nevada and Canada. Carolyn Stevenson, 4 years, teaches German, Spanish, and Human Relations. She takes college courses, reads, camps, and travels. Helen Dickey, new here but not to the community, teaches vocal music and dramatics. She also likes ceramics, cooking, and bridge. Oliver Kaura, 16 years, and Karl Meinhardt, 2 years, teach instrumental music. Mr. Kaura's outside interests are his family, vacations, church, pro sports, and cultural events. Mr. Meinhardt directs a church choir, teaches at the Fine Arts Center, and bowls.

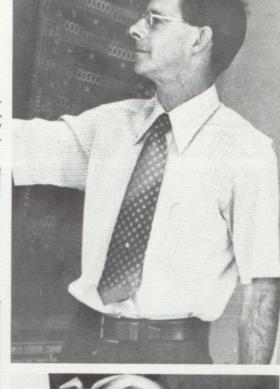

A. Ron Chutas, B. Randolph Pope, C. Harrylee Utz, D. Rich Gregor, E. Tom Kosciuszko, F. Jane Clark, G. Tony Nappi, H. Nancy Hunt, I. Robert Rich, J. Rita Scribben, K. Faculty members

Science Department

Science teachers are a varied lot, with 1 to 20 years at Harbor. Ron Chutas, 3 years, Earth Science and, he insists, Advanced Pyglatin, Motorcycles, farms, and likes sports. He lists as class projects looking at rocks, minerals, and crystals, looking out the windows, and sleeping with eyes open. Tom Kosciuszko, 5 years, biology, IPS, and physics, confesses to no hobbies. He received a NSF grant to study physics at the University of Washington in Seattle. Randy Pope, first year here but 14 years in the city, General Science, Senior Science, and biology, likes to hunt, garden, and build things. Reading and bowling interest Harrylee Utz, 20 years, chemistry and IPS. Sports, naturally, but also drawing, sailing, and camping are sidelines for Richard Gregor, 2 years. He says his classes collect insects, study amoebas under microscopes, and work on conservation projects.

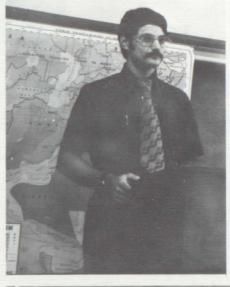

Teachers Lead Exciting Lives

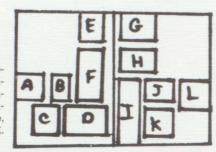

Nancy Hunt teaches four years of art at Harbor and is in her second year here. Her classes spend the first semester doing basic projects and then go on to more advanced work. She likes to paint, and she teaches at the Fine Arts Center and the Kent Student Workshop of Performing Arts. Jane Clark, 7 years at Harbor, teaches sophomore girls health and physical education. They study local air and water pollution and health problems in other lands. Reading, golf, and music are Mrs. Clark's hobbies. Tony Nappi teaches freshman and sophomore boys health and physical education. He was at Harbor a year, spent 2 years at the Academy of Health Sciences in the Army, received the Army commendation medal, and is back here. Graduate school and remodeling his house keep him busy. Bob Rich, 6 years, teaches freshman boys health and physical education and coaches baseball. Sports are his favorite pastime. Rita Scribben, 5 years, teaches freshman girls health and physical education and coaches girls' basketball. She enjoys billiards and antiquing furniture.

Teachers Have Varied Interests

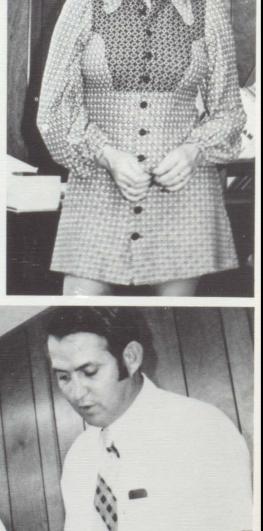

Ed Armstrong returns to Harbor after several years' absence. He previously taught here 10 years and coached several sports. He teaches Special Education and is head basketball coach. He enjoys his four children and likes to golf, hunt, and fish. Sue Incorvia teaches another Special Education class and is in her third year at Harbor. She was married this summer and keeps house in her spare time. Louis Revelant is new at Harbor but has supervised adult education and taught in the city system for 16 years. This year he is setting up the Occupational Work Adjustment program to help potential dropouts prepare for jobs. The OWA class plans to sell candy to raise money for jackets. Mr. Revelant likes to watch sports, read, and travel. Bob Short, three years at Harbor, teaches driver training and coaches JV basketball and baseball. He likes fishing, golf, and all sports. Dennis DeGennaro, two years at Harbor, also teaches driver training. Reading, music, and sports are his hobbies.

Industrial Arts, Business Home Economics, Mechanical Drawing

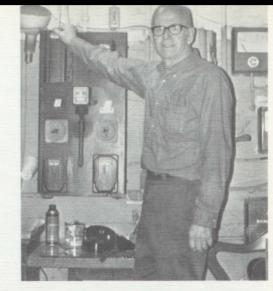

Business, home economics, industrial arts, and mechanical drawing teachers have been at Harbor from 2 to 22 years and teach a variety of subjects. John Rose, in his second year, teaches Business Education, bookkeeping, and typing. He is assistant football coach. Sports and reading are his pastimes. Edith Witt, 5 years here and many more in the city, teaches prebusiness training, notehand, and typing. She likes to read, to embroider, and to travel. Juanita Baily, 8 years, teaches home economics and Family Life at Harbor and home ec. and biology at AHS. She loves to hike, read, and sew and hopes some day she may have time. Rozella Harpst, 9 years, teaches home economics and Senior Survey. She loves to sew for and talk about her two grandchildren and to cook, especially shoofly and buttermilk pies from her grandmother's recipes. George Puchan, 7 years, teaches industrial arts, shop and drawing. When not working around his house, he likes to read and fish. Wilbert Willey, 22 years, teaches engineering and architectural drawing. He has traveled widely, he says, "by way of Jim Doney on Channel 8."

Mr. Carlson

They Feed Us And Keep Us Comfortable

Usually taken for granted but essential to the comfort of HHS inhabitants are the custodians and cafeteria workers, who are not always seen or heard but whose absence for a day or two would definitely be noticed.

Custodians show up long before the rest of us to make sure the building is heated and cleaned and in good repair, everything ready for a new day. They are on duty evenings and at special activities.

Cafeteria workers show up shortly before noon to get ready to feed the three chow lines.

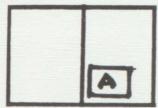

Mr. Lewis

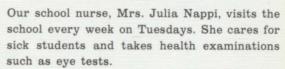

They Keep Us Healthy

And Informed

The Topky Library librarians, Mrs. Marian Myllymaki, Mrs. Rita Balog, and Mrs. Marian Huffman, keep busy by serving our school as well as the public. They help Harbor students by providing them with materials for classwork and help teachers by letting them use the library for classes. The librarians must take care of all the books and records and prepare new books for shelving.

CLASSES

Class of '74-Seniors

In September, 1971, the class of 1974 entered Harbor High School, not knowing what to expect. Freshmen memories were our homerooms in the nowextinct Jackson Building and the sale of "Peanut Chrunch" and delicious sugar-free candies. Sophomore projects were a pancake breakfast and a flea market which improved finances. The annual chocolate bar sale finished fund raising as Juniors. The headaches and labor put into "Journey to the Center of the Earth" were well rewarded as the result was a record-setting attendance for the 1973 prom. Then, the class of '74 finally became part of the Homecoming festivities after three years of watching from the sidelines. These and other memories of friends and faculty members will be reminders of Harbor High School.

Juniors-Class Of '75

In the first two months of the school year members of the Junior Class held their customary class candy bar sale. This was their last major money-making project.

Harbor's long-standing tradition of having the elaborately decorated gym as the sight of the Junior-Senior Prom was broken. The class, responsible for the prom, voted to hold it in a hall due to safety reasons.

Sophomores- Class of '76

The Sophomore Class boosted their treasury with a candy sale in January. The sale lasted two weeks with Donna Zullo, Dave Freilich, and Joe Warren as top sellers.

The class also held the annual car-wash on Prom-Day, of which many juniors and seniors took advantage.

Sophomores selected class ring styles, placed their orders early in the school year, and received their rings in the Spring.

Freshmen- Class of '77

The Freshmen class started their first year at Harbor with spirit and enthusiasm. They added lots of life to all the school's activities and events. Though harassed by upperclassmen, they managed to hold their own.

The class got under way in the fall with the election of officers and by February had organized their first major project. With the help of some hard-working advisors, the freshmen held a successful magazine sale.

"Journey To The Center Of The Earth" Attracts Record Crowd

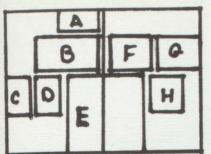

"Journey to the Center of the Earth" was the theme of the 1973 Junior-Senior Prom held in Fawcett Gym May 5 from 8 to midnight. Guests entered the gym through a mine shaft and came out among a volcano, a forest of snow trees, mushrooms, a waterfall, giant tree roots, and a jewel wall. Tony Esposito and his orchestra provided music. Kevin Bollman and Pam Surbella were crowned King and Queen of the Prom. In their court were Pete Fleming and Laura Crombie, Randy Barbato and Katie Thomas, Jim McMillan and Joan Chaney. Parents supervised the after-prom party, for which "Satellite" furnished music.

Thespians Promote High School Drama

The purpose of the International Thespian Society is to promote the fine arts on a high school level and to encourage attendance to productions.

The members were kept busy during the year with their many activities. They sponsored and participated in the junior class play, one-act plays, annual Variety Show, and spring musical. They attended a drama workshop at Kent State and plays in Cleveland. A banquet was held in the spring to initiate new members, and to finish the year the members had their annual picnic.

Camelot—Harbor Style

The popular Lerner and Lowe musical "Camelot" was presented by Harbor High School on May 17 and 18, 1973, to large, attentive audiences. Based upon T.H. White's THE ONCE AND FUTURE KING, the play tells the story of King Arthur's court and his famous Round Table.

The play was specifically concerned with King Arthur (Jeff Stillman), Queen Guinevere (Connie Millberg), and Lancelot du Lac (Brian Burnett) and their love affair. It was sprinkled with comedy from King Pellinore (Eric Carlson) and evil from Mordred (Ken Griffith). The chorus added liveliness and color to the scenes. The audiences seemed to be especially charmed by the colorful medieval costumes and scenery.

The students were directed by Mrs. Maryalice Eller, aided by Brian Burnett as student director and Peggy Huggins as accompanist.

Women's Lib Hits Jr.-Sr. Play

A women's liberation feud took over the Harbor stage on November 16 and 17 for the production of David Rogers's "F.L.I.P.P.E.D."

It all started when Niki Pendleton (Jill Emery) got her sisters, Gaby Pendleton Blair (Sabrina Fobes) and Drusy Pendleton (Sue Waller), and mother (Kim Wood) to join the Female Liberation Idealists' Party for Permanent Equality Democracy, better known as F.L.I.P.P.E.D.

The action moved along with the girls whistling at construction workers and demonstrating at the Kitten Club. Complications set in when the girls were asked to quit by their father, Ralph Buona, and other husbands or boyfriends Chris Avery, Eric Carlson, and Bruce Lillie.

The play came to a climax with a noisy, hectic courtroom presided over by a female judge, Gail Lillie, who figured out a solution.

The play was under the able direction of Miss Helen Dickey and student director Bruce Lillie.

Variety Show

"Comics and Cartoons" was the theme of the 33rd annual Variety Show.

Sue Waller as Miss Varieties opened the show with the Senior Girls chorus. Nancy Imhoff as Miss Liberty appeared with the choir to close it.

Chris Avery, Stuart Cordell, and Sue Waller were Masters of Ceremonies. Miss Helen Dickey directed the show.

Vocal solos, skits, routines by the majorettes, The Mexican Session, the Senior Girls chorus, and songs by the choir made up the entertainment.

Choir Makes Changes

This year Harbor's choir was directed by Miss Helen Dickey, who had come from Columbus Junior High School. Unlike past years, freshmen were allowed to sing with the choir in various performances.

This year's performances included the Veterans' Day assembly and the annual Christmas Meditation. Other events scheduled were the annual Variety Show, Pops Concert, Spring Concert, and Baccalaureate. Miss Dickey also planned a choral exchange with different area high schools.

The Madrigals, a choral group comprised of ten members, is completely independent, planning their own programs and choosing their own music.

Throughout the year the Madrigals were asked to sing for many events. For Harbor they sang in yearbook skits, Christmas Meditation program, Variety Show, and Pops Concert. They also sang Christmas carols in the halls and classrooms.

The band started its work early with new members learning marching techniques while other members refreshed their skills at a two-week work session before school had started. The band, under the direction of Mr. Karl Meinhardt, put on shows for home football games. The shows, with modern music and new marching steps, proved to be good entertaiment for the audiences.

The concert season started after the last football game. Members, under the baton of Mr. Oliver Kaura, worked on classical and light pieces of music for the mid-winter, spring, commencement, and pop concerts.

Other activities of the band were the Solo and Ensemble Contest and a variety of parades.

Pep Band Enlivens School Events

This year's Pep Band, under the student direction of Ralph Buona, provided enjoyable and lively music for basketball games and pep assemblies. The music not only gave spirit to the crowd but also gave rhythm to routines for the cheerleaders. The members chose music from Christmas songs to the "Star Spangled Banner."

The Pep Band is solely a student project. The members meet about once a week for practice and to choose which music to play. They set up their own rules for attendance and behavior. One of their big projects was establishing a Pep Band uniform which consisted of dark pants, a white shirt, and a blue sweater with a "Mariner Pep Band" patch on the sleeve.

Majorettes Sparkle In New Uniforms

This year's majorettes provided lively entertainment at football games with their talent.

Nancy Imhoff, head majorette, led Julie Stevens, Linda Lee, Kathy Turchik, Cindy Diehl, and Barbara Ray in giving shows to appreciative audiences. Some of their shows consisted of twirling fire batons, sabers, hoops, flags, and two batons.

Their major project for the year was getting new uniforms. The regular majorettes' uniforms were purple, and the head majorette's was white, trimmed in purple and gold.

The majorettes also shared their talent by giving performances at halftime at basketball games and the Variety Show.

Newspaper Staff

The Newspaper staff, under the supervision of Miss Mary Boyce, really worked hard to bring you the Mariner each month. Journalism students solicit ads to finance it. They collect facts, write and re-write news stories, compose headlines, type and measure, take pictures, write captions and layout pages. When the printed copy returns, problems begin. Everyone hurriedly works on the paste-ups to make sure everything fits and holes are filled. Columns are lined up, and everything is proofread. The paper is then shipped off again, and the printed papers are back within a few days to be distributed. This year the staff came up with a new column called "Dear Gabby," where Harbor students can write in and have their problems solved, and "Sweethearts of the Month," which focused on couples who have been going together for a while.

Yearbook Staff

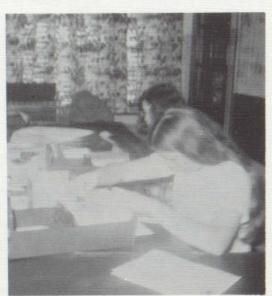

This year's yearbook staff, led by editor-in-chief Nancy Imhoff and co-editor Sally Roberson, consisted of many hardworking people along with Miss Mary Boyce, the adviser. Nine different committees took care of special sections of the yearbook.

Nancy and Sally coordinated the book, while section coeditors delegated responsibilities to their committees. Throughout the year, each committee had deadlines to meet and many things to do in preparation for the new 1974 Mariner.

The Art Committee drew up sketches and drawings pertaining to the theme. The Advertising Committee took the large responsibility of getting all the ads, sponsors, and patrons for the book. They arranged the order of the ads and collected money for them. The Photography Committee took all the candid pictures for the Mariner. The Activities Committee organized all the clubs and organizations. Senior Album Committee gathered material for the directory. Subscription Committee collected money and took orders for the yearbook. The Literary Committee did all the writing. Sports Committee gathered information on sports events and then organized it. Underclassman Committee indentified each student and put him in alphabetical order.

AFS-

Small World-Isn't It?

The purpose of the American Field Service is to introduce and support our foreign exchange students.

They raise money by Penny Wednesdays, by running a coat check at the Zonta Bazaar, and by a spring benefit bridge party.

The AFS Club gives assemblies to acquaint students with our exchange student. This year Doug Pardo, our AFS student, talked to Harbor students about his country and its customs. The club threw a surprise birthday party for Doug and presented him with the book AMERICA.

Kathy Koren, one of Harbor's AFS members, spent the past year in Australia as an exchange student.

Advisers are Mrs. Edith Witt and Mr. George Puchan.

AFS Sends Kathy

Kathy Koren, a senior, was a representative for the Americans Abroad program. She traveled to Australia in January of her junior year and lived with the Ainge family in Pymble, which is a suburb north of Sydney. She had two brothers, John 19, and Steve 15. She also had two sisters Rosemary 12, and Susan 18, who was chosen as an AFS student in San Francisco. Kathy attended Ku-Ring-Gai High School. The school courses were very advanced.

Kathy returned home in January of 1974. She said, "My family was wonderful and made me feel like a fifth child. I now realize how much the U. S. means to me."

A.F.S. Sponsors Doug

Our foreign exchange student this year is Doug Pardo from Iquique, Chile.

Doug is living with the Robert Anderson family at 3000 Russell Road. His two American brothers are Mark, a senior, and David, who is five. His American sister, Sharon, is a sophomore at Harbor.

Doug is seventeen and enjoys all sports. He participates in Harbor cross country and varsity basketball. He plays an active part in the American Field Service, Student Council, and Senior Men. In November Doug was chosen Student of the Month by the Student Council.

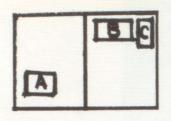

Doug has two sisters and four brothers at home in Chile. He is second to the youngest in his family.

Artists Are Active

Art Club

Art Club helps members to be better acquainted with the different forms of art. This Art Club held their meetings at the homes of various members. A Christmas party was held along with bake sales and many other things. They sold birds made from ribbon and women weaved them together for Christmas decorations. Money making projects were held to finance the field trip to the Art Museum and the art banquet. Creations made by the members were often displayed in the showcase in the lower hall. The club is under the supervision of Mrs. Nancy Hunt. This year's officers were Leslie Eller, president; Loree Briggs, vice president; Carol Ray, secretary; Nancy Jeffers, treasurer.

Running the Usher Squad are Brenda Saturday (FRONT), secretary-treasurer; Debbie Azzano, president, and Denise Saturday, vice president (SECOND ROW). Miss Sherry Cooley (BACK) was substituting as adviser for Mrs. Gail

Usher Squad Aids School

The Usher Squad is made up of girls who volunteer to help give out programs, take tickets, and help people find their way around at most of the special events held at school.

The club aims to help its members develop poise and nice manners and walk, as well as the obvious art of ushering in an orderly and efficient way.

Plays, concerts, Parent Visitation days, and graduation ceremonies are typical of the events where they can be seen at work.

Service with the Usher Squad is voluntary, and any girl can join.

This year they held bake sales to raise funds.

Future Teachers Host Slow Learners

The Future Teachers of America, assisted by Mrs. Edith Witt and Mr. Raymond Edeburn, organize to promote interest in teaching as a future goal. They achieved this by their many activities during the year.

The club's schedule consisted of teaching classes in elementary schools while the teachers were at meetings, attending PTA meetings, touring a college campus, and giving a Christmas party to the children of the slow learners' class at Saybrook school. The members also had interesting as well as enjoyable activities. They dressed up in costumes for their Halloween party and held their annual awards picnic at the end of the year.

Audio-Visual

The Audio-Visual Club serves the school by keeping all equipment in proper maintenance. This includes storage and repair.

Record players, tape recorders, slide, filmstrip, and overhead projectors, as well as video tape are available. Video tape is used for plays, wrestling, football, basketball and class activity.

The club made a podium for the auditorium as a service project and also worked on fund-raising activities.

Ski Club Visits Peek 'n Peak

Harbor had a very active Ski Club this year. The members went to Peek'n Peak on Tuesdays. They took ski lessons or spent all their time on the slopes.

The officers are Stu Cordell, president; Ron DiDonato, vice president; and Robin Lyon, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Clay Cosimi is the adviser.

Club Studies German Life

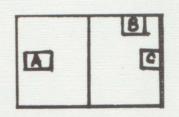

The members of the German Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Carolyn Stevenson, meet to acquaint themselves with the language, geography, culture, and people of German speaking countries.

This year the club viewed Mr. Barnum's slides of Germany, held a Christmas party with German customs, traveled in the spring to the German Village in Columbus, and had a dinner with German delicacies.

The meetings, held every first and third Monday of the month, were led by Cathy Stenroos, president; Laura Turner, vice-president; and Paula Dorman, secretary-treasurer.

El Círculo Español

Members of the Spanish Club, under the supervision of Miss Ann Monaco, meet to acquaint and enrich themselves in the culture of the Spanish language.

For a service project the members of the club adopted a family for Christmas. Also during the year the club had a bowling outing and held a Mexican dinner. The dinner was planned by a Spanish class with the help of Doug Pardo, the AFS student from Chile. The club also made pinatas of paper mache and filled them with candy for Christmas.

Math Club Adds Activities

The Math Club was organized for the fourth year at Harbor with Miss Barbara Kunes as adviser. The club is designed to stimulate interest in fields related to mathematics and to establish an environment geared to the subject.

Many members traveled to colleges in the fall. In November they visited Edinboro State College in Edinboro, Pennsylvania. During the day the members listened to lectures on mathematics, science, and astronomy or toured the campus. The club also traveled to John Carroll University in Cleveland. They heard lectures on mathematics and physics and viewed the working of computers.

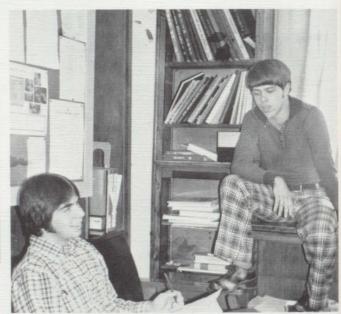

Other activities included a math newspaper and the National Mathematics Test, which is sponsored each year in March by the club.

Latin Club Is Revived

The Harbor Latin Club was newly organized this year in September with a total of forty-one members.

The member's goals of the club were to study Roman and Greek backgrounds, to promote fellowship, and to develop recreational opportunities.

The outstanding event of the year was Latin Club banquet. The members also held a sale of slaves as a money-raising project.

The meetings were held every third Wednesday of the month with the presiding officers: Jeanette Olsen, president; Rebecca Ray, vice-president; and Sharon Anderson, secretary-treasurer, Mr. Raymond Seals gave his help as club adviser.

Red Cross Aids Needy

Red Cross is an organization made up of mostly volunteers. Each year they carry out three annual projects. Their first project this year was to make Halloween favors for the Cripple Children's Society. The second project was to pack Christmas boxes for Longview patients at the County Home. The last project was an Easter party for the children at Happy Hearts School. Adviser is Mrs. Rozella Harpst. Elected officers for this year were Martha Plants, president; Bob Robertson, vice president; Cindy Robertson, secretary; Toni Camplese, treasurer; Lester Currie, historian; Anita Zappitelli, point chairman.

Officers Participate In Exchange

Student Council had a very worthwhile and prosperous year. Meeting every month, the members cleared up many issues and solved the problems of the students.

The Council's officers started the school year with elections in the homerooms. A president and a vice president were elected to represent each room. Their first activity was a combined victory and freshman welcoming dance in the fall.

The Council's officers and class officers visited other schools' student governments to get new ideas. They also invited other schools to visit Harbor. The members took care of their responsibility each month by electing two Students of the Month. Members of the Council decorated a Christmas tree and put up the flag each day.

Girls Are Good Sports

The Girls' Athletic Association gives girls a chance to participate in sports as teams and promotes both good sportsmanship and a feeling of good will among the girls.

The intramural program and the interclass tournaments in the spring are big events for the GAA. They sponsor many other activities.

They welcome new members with a party in the fall. They go bowling, swimming, and skating, and they invite other schools to playdays. At Christmas they adopted a family. The year is capped with an awards dinner in the spring.

Cadet Club

The Cadet Club is not really a club but a group of girls who are interested in physical education. Keeping physically fit is another of their aims as a group.

They help Mrs. Jane Clark and Mrs. Rita Scribben with their gym classes. In their free periods two girls in each class help with both instruction and equipment.

Intramurals

The Girls' Athletic Association sponsors a very lively competition in girls' intramurals.

Girls who are interested in the various sports sign up and are assigned to teams, which then play in a tournament.

Volleyball is the first sport to be played. The volleyball season begins in about October and runs for several weeks. The girls play after school two afternoons a week. The basketball season follows and is handled the same way.

The year's activities wind up with the inter-class tournaments.

Wrestling Cheerleaders

Wrestling cheerleaders are the newest group of cheerleaders and have been active only the past year or two.

They are chosen after tryouts, as the other cheerleaders are, and their activities are similar. They cheer at wrestling matches, help build spirit and pep at pep assemblies, and work at other projects.

They attended a cheerleaders' camp in Dayton.

Wrestling cheerleaders are Betty Peck, Sarilee Picard, Denise Saturday, and Donna Prisco.

Cheerleaders Are Tops

The Mariner cheerleaders kept school spirit running high throughout the year. They organized and participated in pep assemblies and painted signs for the gymnasium.

The varsity cheerleaders went to the Golden Eagle Cheerleading Camp in Pennsylvania, where they won the first place trophy. During the school year they held a coupon drive, a baby contest, and made signs for the players' lockers.

The junior varsity and freshman cheerleaders also had a busy year. They both attended cheerleading clinics in the summer, where they represented Harbor well. To raise money, the freshman girls sold pom-poms. Both squads hung signs in the players' locker room and helped the varsity cheerleaders raise spirit at pep assemblies.

The wrestling cheerleaders attended the Nationwide Camp at Dayton University during the summer. They worked on skills which they used at matches and pep assemblies.

Sluggers Rank 4th In State

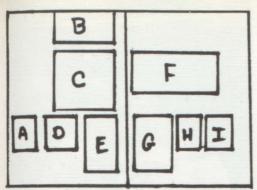

The Mariner baseball team had the best season in the history of Harbor baseball by going farther than any other team has gone in tournament play. They sported an 8 - 4 record in the NEC, placing them second in the league, and a 2 - 2 record in the City Series by winning over Ashtabula and losing to Edgewood and Ashtabula. Their real highlight of the season came by being Sectional Tournament Champions, District Tournament Champions, and runners-up in the Regionals. The team's final standing was a welldeserved fourth in the state for class AA schools. The team was led by head coach Robert Rich and assistant coach Robert Short. Senior players included Dave Peet, Rich Chupick, Rick Leonard, and Tim Cevera. Junior players were Josh Sheldon, Joe Timonere, Ron Chambers, and Tom Jones. The tremendous team effort consisted of enthusiastic players, of which six won individual honors. They were Dave Peet, best batting average; Rich Chupick, best defensive player; Josh Sheldon, most improved player; Rick Leonard, clutch player; Dave Peet and Rich Chupick, most valuable player awards.

Tennis-1973

The 1972-73 Mariner tennis team continued its winning ways with an overall season record of 10 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. This record earned the team third place in the NEC behind Geneva and Ashtabula. Co-captains for the 1972-73 tennis team were Jim McMillan and Scott Seaman. The high point of regular season play was the team's trip to Canton Lehman. Post-season play included participation in the sectionals in Euclid in which the team made a very good showing. Mark Starkey won the sectionals which qualified him for district play in Akron. In the NEC tournament Harbor was represented in the finals by three players. Also, in the Warren Andrews Tournament, Harbor participants made another excellent showing with Joe Phillips winning the singles championship and with Pierre and Bob Triozzi taking the doubles crown. Jim McMillan was chosen Most Valuable Player for the season and Mark Starkey received the R. L. Huff Award. Optimistically looking toward next year, Coach Huff commented, "1974 should be an exciting year with a balanced team in the thick of the NEC race."

Rebuilding Year For Cindermen

Under the supervision of John Higgins and Dean McQuaide, the Harbor track team had a respectable year. They placed fourth in the NEC and second in the City Series. The team's competition was good for a young team, but there were several outstanding individual performers. In the Geneva relays, Jim Rennick, Rich Holman, and Dave Fortune placed first in the shot put relay. For the Mentor relays Frank Petro, Rich Holman, and Greg Schlaich took fourth in the discus relay; Jim Rennick, Dave Fortune, and Rich Holman took fifth in the shot put relay; and Keith Reinker, Bruce Lillie, Larry Ende, and Bill Wiser took fifth in the mile relay. The qualifiers for the Kent Regionals were Jim Rennick shot put; Bill Wiser, 440; Matt Kent, 880; the 880 relay team; and the mile relay time.

Girls Fall Short Of N.E.C. Title

The 1973-74 Mariner girls basketball team finished the season with a hard-fought season record of 5 wins and 3 losses. This record placed them in a second-place tie with Conneaut behind NEC leader Edgewood. The Team's city series record of 3 wins and 1 loss earned them a first place tie with Edgewood in the city series. In non-league play, the Mariner girls played the team from Perry High School two times and were victorious on both occasions. Co-captains for the 1973-74 season were Robin Jaskela and Nancy Kohut. The eleven member team was composed of seven seniors, Peggy Huggins, Robin Jaskela, Nancy Kohut, Sue Laine, Belinda Oliver, Pam Thompson, and Sue Andrews. The remaining team members are Cindy Rehrig, the only junior, and Sharon Anderson, Beth Mauro, and Karen Beitz, all sophomores. Asked about the season, Coach Scribbens commented, "The season for the Harbor Girls' Basketball team was very successful. They defeated Ashtabula on Bula's court for the first time in 4 years. As for any predictions for next season," Coach Scribbens commented, "I lose 7 seniors this year so no prediction will be made on next years season."

Linksters Post Excellent Record

The Harbor golf team had yet another successful year with an outstanding over-all record of 18 wins and 3 losses. They captured the NEC crown, won the City Series, and placed fourth in the Sectional and fifth in the District. Leading the squad were juniors Chuck Redmond and John Lillvis, who won the Meehan Award, and freshman Greg Del Prince. Bill Righter, Eric Wagner, Jerry Nierzejewski, Hank Pekkola, Florian Eggleton and John Wilson were senior members. Coach Walsuko expects another good team for the 1974 season. He commented that they should be a strong contender for the next NEC crown.

A. Bruce Lillie keeps in shape. B. Steve Reichert, C. Bruce Lillie, D. Doug Pardo, E. Coach Dean McQuaide, F. One of the two female members of the team.

Harriers Have Strong Season

The Mariner cross country team had a very successful season. Not only was their record excellent, but they learned more about the running technique. They had a 4-1 record in the NEC and a 2-0 record in the City Series. The team was proud of their fine season and also because they set a first at Harbor—they allowed girls to participate. Loree Briggs and Mary Jo Stroeter were runners while Leslie Eller served as statistician. The squad was ably coached by Dean McQuaide, with Bruce Lillie and Steve Reichert as senior co-captains. The other senior was Doug Pardo. Two runners were outstanding for the Mariner team. Larry Ende qualified for the district meet and Bruce Lillie was voted the most valuable runner.

Varsity Football

The 1973 football squad under the coaching of Mr. Glenn Suthe in ended with a 4-2-1 record for the NEC. The team had great spirit and attitude but fell short of the NEC crown because they did not have quite as much ability as some opposing teams. This year's team was led by co-captains Tim Anderson and Ron Chambers and seniors Albert Anderson, Steve Burgess, Chris Coxe, Matt Kent, Frank Petro, Jim Rennick, Terry Schlaich, Joe Timonere, and Carl Turner. Games which highlighted the year were Harbor's exciting 7-6 Homecoming victory over Edgewood, their 7-7 tie with Ashtabula, and the Mariners' 39-0 stomping of Jefferson. Two of Harbor's players were honored during the year. Jack Hummer was voted best offensive player of the week in the city when he gained more than 100 yards in the game against Geneva, and Matt Kent was also voted the best offensive player for his excellent performance.

A. "How come they're out there and we're in here?" "Look at the score board." B. Please move — or else!" C. Blonde? Where? Where? D. You've been watching too much Kung Fu.

J.V.'s End 4-1

JV gridders lost only one game. They beat Conneaut 14-12, Geneva 12-0, Madison 16-0, and Edgewood 8-0. St. John won 14-8.

Mr. Richard Gregor and Mr. Ron Chutas coached the team.

Don Jones ran the option play to beat Conneaut and threw TD passes to Greg Schlaich and Tom Karkutt against Geneva.

Kaiser Holman scored against St. John with a 99-yard run.

Ray Henton and George Hibbs made the TD's against Madison, and Hibbs got the conversion.

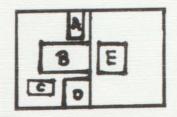

Joe Sharp passed to Terry Schlaich for the TD against Edgewood, and Karkutt converted.

A. Friend or foe? B. Only the "Six Million Dollar Man" could stop Steve Burgess, Carl Turner, and Tim Anderson in their pursuit. C. Boy, am I gonna get sacked. Hey, guy, your shoe's untied! D. Hey, Mal Watch this! E.....but if we run that play — Operator, get this nut off the line!

Frosh Gridders Show Room For Improvement

The freshman gridders had a disappointing year, ending the season with 1 win and 6 losses in the NEC. Coaches Richard Pavolino and John Rose determined their losses as from lack of experience, failure to move the ball, and not being able to stop the opposing team. Though the freshmen suffered defeats, Barry Shick, Mark Radwansky, Mark Johnson, Dave Gaines, and Richard Hazeltine played well and were the team's standouts. The players plan to do better next year with more pride, determination, and confidence.

Something else new was a special assembly to educate fellow students on how's, why's and wherefore's of wrestling matches and scoring.

They had a 6-3-1 season. Including the Weirton Tournament, it was 8-3-1.

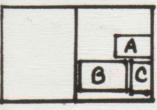

Going into the sectionals, Steve Womble and Frank Petro were seeded first, Fran Colling second, and Rainer Kangas fourth.

They were 5th in the sectionals, with Womble, Petro, Colling, and Kangas going on to district competition.

A., B., and C. Frank Petro, Tony Rapose, and Rainer Kangas continue Harbor's winning streak.

JV's Improve

The 1973-1974 Junior Varsity Basketball team had a season of learning. By the end of the schedule the team members had started to play up to their capabilities, and most had shown improvement in at least one phase of the game.

The Mariner reserves, under coach Robert Short and cocaptains Jeff Skaruppa and Willie Jones, had a 7-6 NEC record.

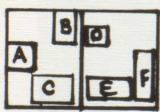

JUNIOR VARSITY
ROW 1: Willie Jones, Al Crockett, Mike Beckwith, Tom Clint, Willie Saddler. ROW 2: Coach Robert Short,
Kenny Williams, Nelson Benedict, Lib Vitale, Jim Tremblay, Jeff Skaruppa

A. Willie Jones races toward another field goal with Al Crockett ready to assist. B. Sophomore Jeff Skaruppa rips down a rebound during the home match between Conneaut and Harbor. C. Now, Kenny, we all know you weren't wearing lead shoes! D. Don't believe that Freshmen games aren't as rough as J.V. or Varsity! D. Finger-tip tennis, anyone? F. The magnetic basketball pulls four freshman cagers to the air.

Freshmen Hustle

Despite being the shortest team in the NEC, the freshman cagers used hustle and dedication to turn a bleak-looking season into a successful one. By utilizing a full court press and fast breaks, the Mariners compiled a 11-6 season record.

Coach John Higgins, at the helm for his first year, produced a fine season with the aid of co-captains John Bradley and Randy Jones.

In Memoriam

Three young men who should have been members of the Class of 1974 will be present at the graduation ceremony only in the memory of those who knew them.

"Death will come when thou art dead, Soon, too soon —"

Death came early to claim James Holcomb, George Kaplan, and Terry Frend, all victims of car accidents or lingering disease. The Mariner devotes this space to their memory.

James Holcomb spent only a few months at Harbor. Early in the morning of December 18, 1970, he was struck by a car and died almost instantly. Something of a loner, he had little opportunity to make many new friends here. We pause to remember him.

George Kaplan dropped out early in 1971. Then illness overtook him, and he was in and out of hospitals several times before he died on September 11, 1973. Let us remember him.

Bikes, intramurals, and cars were Terry Frend's main interests. He died in a head-on auto crash August 28, 1973, only a few days before this school year began. Many of his classmates will remember him.

Editors

We hope everyone who reads this yearbook likes it as much as we enjoyed compiling it. To many, this book contains memories of the happy times, the rough times, the people and places which may someday become vague shadows of a year unlike all others.

The staff has spent many hours learning, planning, photographing, drawing, and writing the material that has been printed. Although they learned to work under very unaccomodating conditions, the yearbook staff came through with a very modern and well constructed annual.

Sally and I would like to express our gratitude to Miss Boyce, the staff, and those who volunteered their efforts to the betterment of our book. Many thanks also to Mr. Pete Prentner of Walsworth Publishing Company. Photo credits are in order to the Star-Beacon, Robert Barbin and Associates, Art Taylor, studios and our photography staff.

Thanks to the people of Harbor High School and the Harbor area for giving us these happy moments, for any yearbook "Needs People."
